RETROSPECT

Class of 2001

As we stand outside the double doors, Dressed in our caps and gowns, We wait for the time to come
When the class would be called down

When the moment arrives,
We slowly march in.
It just seems so unreal;
Our lives are about to begin.

They call us up one by one,
And we march across the floor.
We then receive the diploma
That we have worked so diligently for.

We all remain up on the stage
And look out into the crowd.
We see the faces of the ones we love;
Man, don't they look proud?

The names have been called; The time is finally here. We throw our caps into the air And let out a resounding cheer.

We are then greeted by our families And greeted by our friends. All the time we're thinking, "Does this night really have to end?"

> One journey has ended, Another just begun. Many doors are now open For the class of 2001.

Dear Haley,

From the day you were born, you have brought joy to our lives. You were the bappiest little baby, and now you have grown into the most beautiful young woman - both inside and out. Use the gifts God has given you to make all your dreams come true. Always remember how proud we are of you and how very much we love you.

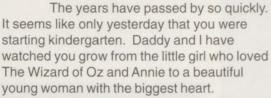

Jennifer, God could not have blessed your Daddy and I any more than he did when he gave you to us. You have always been and always will be Daddy's little girl, but you have grown from my sweet little girl to my best friend. We have shared so many good times and have so many memories that will be treasured forever.

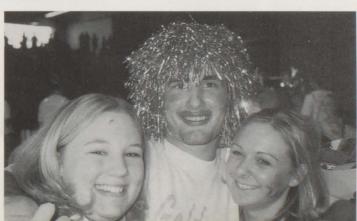

As you start this new chapter of your life, remember that Daddy and I will always be here for you. We are so excited for you and so proud of you have accomplished.

If you keep your heart in the right place and your goals in sight, the world will be yours. We love you very much!

Love.
